Docents Needed for Ryan Place Tour

Advent is just around the corner, which means it's time to start preparing for the annual Ryan Place Tour of Homes. Each year, the Ryan Place neighborhood opens several of the larger homes for public tours on the first weekend of December. St. John's participates by hosting the ticket booth and vendors in Gregory Hall and the guild parlor, and we also open the church for tours.

We want people to see our beautiful church, but we also want to answer any questions our visitors may have, so each year we ask for volunteers from the parish to serve as docents. The tour will be on Saturday December 2 from 12 noon-9 pm and Sunday December 3 from 12 noon-5 pm. We would like to have at least two docents available during the tour, one to serve in the church and the other to serve in the Children's Chapel. Docent shifts will last for one hour, though you're welcome to serve longer if you like.

Jason Merritt will host docent training in the church on Sunday, November 26 during Sunday school. If you're out of town that weekend because of Thanksgiving travel, there will be a training video that you can watch instead.

Docenting is actually really easy. Most of our guests want to come in and look around independently. Our main task as docents is to be welcoming and to answer questions.

If you would like to volunteer or if you have any questions, feel free to contact Jason Merritt at jmerritt@covenantfw.org. Sign-up sheets are available in the Narthex and Gregory Hall.

Our traditional evening of Hanging of the Greens and decorating for the Ryan Place Tour of Homes will take place Wednesday, November 29th at 5:30 pm. All are invited and encouraged to attend.

Tea Room Desserts

Yummy desserts are very much needed for the AYM Tea Room (nothing that needs heating or refrigerating, please). Cakes, pies, brownies and bars are especially desired, as they are easy to serve. Please drop off desserts on Friday, December 1st during office hours, or at any time during the weekend.
